City of Floresville Partners with USDA Rural Development to Provide Housing Seminar

TEMPLE, TEXAS, APRIL 14, 2016 - The USDA Rural Development Seguin Area Office and the City of Floresville will be hosting a Housing Seminar on April 26th from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at Floresville Event Center, 600 TX Hwy 97 West, Floresville, Texas. The office proudly provides service to Atascosa, Bexar, Comal, Guadalupe, Karnes and Wilson Counties.

Potential applicants, builder/contractors, realtors, and other interested individuals are encouraged to attend. Topics include how 100% financing can be used to purchase an existing or newly constructed home in an eligible rural area, the requirements, areas that are considered eligible, and how to apply.

Please call the Seguin Area Office with any questions at (830) 372-1043, ext. 4.

USDA, through its Rural Development mission area, administers and manages housing, business and community infrastructure and facility programs through a national network of state and local offices. These programs are designed to improve the economic stability of rural communities, businesses, residents, farmers and ranchers and improve the quality of life in rural America. For information on this and other USDA Rural Development programs in Texas, visit <http://www.rd.usda.gov/tx>.
